“ Our moms were life-long friends. I grew up with Anita & her siblings playing together on the farm & I sometimes visited their home, too. We remained friends through the years, with Jack & Anita & their children visiting us on the farm. We haven't seen her much in the last 20 years, but she & her family are still close to my heart. My heart & Linda's goes out to her family as they mourn her loss. Anita was a fun & loving person. I know she will be missed. We sadly will not be attending the funeral due to COVID.

“ Our sincere sympathies to Jack, Denise, David & family. I will miss my dear best friend. We grew up together through our teenage years, she was matron on honor in my wedding, we shared together as young mothers, and after retirement shopped and had lunch together. I love you and miss you. Carol Shaver
