“ Arline, Al, Mark and Scott lived next door to us for years. She was a fantastic lady and neighbor.. She was a wonderful seamstress. Traveling Classic Bowler. There was nothing she couldn't do. She took care of her dad "POPS" for years. She and Al were a perfect couple and were the perfect parents. RIP Arline

“ When she was 18 years old, Pat "babysat" for me when we moved next to her Linsley family on Laramie Street. She has been a life-long friend. Together with Al Thannum, they were a delightful couple for many years. She was always joyous with lively conversation. Now she is with Al. Our condolences to Mark and Scott and their family. Pat was always telling me about you all! She was very proud of you. She so richly deserves her eternal reward. Rest in peace.
