She was born on September 2, 1933 in Peoria to Charles C. and Inez L. (Platt) Noe. They preceded her in death. She married Richard W. Aydt on April 11, 1959, in Peoria. They lived in East Peoria for over 50 years. He preceded her in death on January 23, 2010.

Charlene graduated from Woodruff High School in 1951. After graduation, she worked for the United Fund for 10 years, first as an IBM operator and later as an office manager. She became a stay-at-home mom when her son was born. She was very active in the Lincoln School (District 86) Mother's Club, was a room mother, volunteered in the school library and wrote the school newsletter. “ I first met this special lady in the very early 1970's at a Lincoln School Mother's Club meeting. Working with her on many projects was always a fun time. Many years of Tammy & Dawn's dance classes & recitals along with every special occasion cake enjoyed by our family kept us connected for many years to come. Charlene was a beautiful friend who will be missed by all who ever knew her. Our prayers go out for her family.
