“ My memories go way back! Chuck was like a brother...growing up just a few houses down the street through all of grade school. We would watch football and baseball games together, run the neighborhood (and further) on our bikes, play little league together, and those epic baseball games in the street almost every day! My heart is truly broken for my childhood friend and his family. Rest in Peace my friend!

“ I met Charles in 2013. I pulled my boat into Kuchies water and tied up at the dock. We were making our way from Wisconsin to Florida and had never been to Peoria. One of my generators was not working so I proceeded to go down in the engine room and try to fix it. Charles and Liz were having dinner on the deck and he saw my struggles and came down and volunteered to help me. I didn't know him from Adam. 2 1/2 hours later he completed the job and my generator was running. In the meantime Liz sat on the deck alone and ate her dinner. He reached out and spend his time and talent to help a total stranger. I never saw him again but we spoke on the phone occasionally and shared comments on Facebook. God bless you Charles and God bless your family.
