“ We met Charlie and Audrey in October of 1964. They are wonderful family. Seen them in heart ache and joy. Charlie sang on our deck with friends many a party. It was a party every time Charlie was around. Hard working for his family and a great sportman you can find. Rest in peace Charlie, you deserve it. Max and Joan cheatham

“ We came to know Charlie and Audrey through their daughter Maureen and husband Derieck. Charlie and Audrey always treated us like family. They always showed great interest in us and our three boys, Clayton, Aaron and Jason. We are at peace with the certainty that Charlie will reign forever at the coming of Jesus on the Last Day. Until then we all are encouraged by Charlie's life and faith, and we live our lives Trusting in Jesus, too. Audrey and her dear and wonderful family are in our prayers. May God grant comfort and peace and even Joy in the certainty of Eternal Life through faith in Jesus. We love you, Jeff and Cindy, Clayton, Aaron, and Jason Sippy, Springfield, Mo
