“ Aunt Connie, you were always apart of our best memories. Hanging out in your room and dancing to your records, probably 78’s, was always fun. I remember walking to the Lincoln Street library with you several times, not a far walk from Grandma’s on Butler Street. There were also several adventures at Twin Lakes one summer. But some of the best were living close by when your boys were little. How we Mettam girls loved your little Reeder boys, Ronnie and Bobby❤️❤️ Know that you are very much loved! Say hello to Mom and Dad and all the others that you’ll meet on the other side! RIP dear Aunt Connie 🙏❤️

I think of you so often, actually whenever I bake potatoes. When I was a newlywed and didn't even know how to make baked potatoes, I called you. I knew you wouldn't tease me later for not knowing how! There aren't many ladies as sweet as you. ❤️

I am so sorry for your loss. Connie was a good friend. I am sorry to say it's now the end of Lucy and Ethel. I am so sorry I can't make it to the visitation. I just found out when it was and living in Henry. I cannot make it before six. My prayers are with the family.
