

Dale C. Hibschan

November 18, 1924 - April 7, 2020

Dale C. Hibschan, age 95 of Peoria, formerly of East Peoria, passed away at 12:15 AM on Tuesday, April 7, 2020 at Lutheran Hillside Village in Peoria. He was born to Benjamin and Anna Belle (Gordon) Hibschan on November 18, 1924 in Kansas, IL. He married Helen L. Steeples in Kansas, IL on October 19, 1948, and she survives.

Dale is also survived by his sister JoAnn Binaco and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by eight siblings.

After serving in the Navy during WWII, he worked for Caterpillar as a clerk, retiring after 30 years. Dale took pride in the fact that he was retired longer than he worked. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church of East Peoria. He was a big Bradley fan, and a member of the Bradley Braves Club since 1972.

A private graveside service will be held on Friday, April 10, 2020 at Fairview Cemetery in Kansas, IL. A public funeral service will be held at a later date. Memorials in honor of Dale may be made to the First United Methodist Church of East Peoria.

Gary Deiters Funeral Home & Cremation Services is assisting the family with arrangements.

“ Dale was like a father to me. He always showed care and concern for me whenever we were together. We shared love for the Bradley Braves and the Chicago Cubs.
He was a great man and will be missed dearly!

“ My deepest sympathy to Helen and extended family. There was no better Bradley fan than Dale along with Helen. My parents, Ray and Wanda Noble, attended Bradley games with them for many years.

“ Uncle Dale I will always remember the Thanksgiving Dinner at Aunt Dorothy's when I walked in to the Family room to see you and my grandson your great-great nephew Jake Simmons building Legos.

Also, all the memories of you at Grandma Susie's in Kansas

God bless you and keep you in his care
