“ *I really enjoyed the times Aunt Doris would come to Steeleville to visit her sister Edith (my mother-in-law) and family! My husband Clay had the same birthday as Aunt Doris. We would reminisce about so many things, talk about recipes and when Edith & Aunt Doris were girls with their sisters! Aunt Doris & Edith ALWAYS went shopping! They would go to the Amish store and Aunt Doris would laugh because she was "taking home more than she came with!". I will miss you Aunt Doris but I take comfort in knowing you are with our Lord and united with Tom and your loved ones who went before you. My sympathy to the family.
