SO

I had the privilege of waiting on Jan and Frank at the. Holiday Inn. They were such a neat couple. Frank was onry yet had true compassion for others.

Frank and Jan did a fantastic job as parents. They taught their kids to be honest, dependable, understanding, and loving. A family member of mine worked for them for a long time. The Borrer family were great role models for her.

Frank was alot of fun. He also seemed to possess a sense of when others were down. He let them know he cared and left them with a smile.

*Jan and family, I'm sorry for your loss. Fly high with the Angels, Frank.
Hugs & prayers,

“ I have so many memories of my Uncle Frank, it's hard to talk about just one. Uncle Frank had an incredible way of always putting a smile on your face and making any situation a fun one! One thing is for sure, he taught me to enjoy football. He took me to my first game to see the Illini play in 1985 and I have never forgotten that experience. A football game was always on TV during the holidays, as I was growing up. I continued the tradition all my adult life. Every Thanksgiving, after the parade, a football game HAD to be playing in the background while I was in the kitchen. My husband and boys never understood, because I didn't watch the game. I always told them it was because when I was growing up Uncle Frank always had a game on and it's just part of my Thanksgiving tradition. Well in the past two years I have learned to actually enjoy the game and have taken the time to watch the whole Superbowl. I unfortunately watch it by myself as my husband and boys still don't get it - haha.

I loved Uncle Frank's humor! He ALWAYS knew just what to say and was never down or depressed. I'm sure he had his moments when he would get angry about something but I never saw him angry.

My husband, Jim and I had the opportunity to visit him in October 2023. I hadn't seen him or my Aunt Jan in several years but had gotten updates regularly. I was expecting a man I wouldn't recognize. Not only did I recognize him, he recognized me and said "Tammy, what in the world are you doing clear up here?" (I live in Texas). Jim and I had gone to Branson, MO for our 35th wedding anniversary and decided to take an extra week and pop on over to Illinois to see family. I said to him "Uncle Frank, you look great!" (Remember, I was expecting to see a man I no longer recognized from everything I had been told of his condition). His comment to me was, "Oh Stop! I'm just waiting in here to die." I laughed so hard, I snorted.

Today, I had the opportunity to attend his service LIVE on Facebook and was so thankful that we now have this opportunity. I've been traveling for the past couple weeks and had just arrived home a couple days before receiving the call that he'd gone home to be with Jesus. I was not in the position of taking another trip.

Uncle Frank, I will carry you in my heart, forever. You taught me to always have a heart for others. Love you, love my family! Thank you. Your Niece, Tammy Preidis

“ To Jan & Family,
We are very sorry to hear of Frank's passing. When I first took over as Chief of Police, he was one of the first people to welcome me kindly. I will never forget that boisterous voice/laughter and quirky jokes. He was a stalwart representative of the community without a doubt with all his volunteering. He truly was a positive example of the East Peoria spirit. He will be sorely missed.
Good job my friend. Now rest in peace, your duty is done!

“ I was fortunate enough to Meet Frank and his wife Blanche through their grandson Scotty's basketball games at Providence Catholic HS. I was also fortunate enough to be Scotty's basketball coach and come to know the entire Slocum family Frank and Blanche were true devoted fans who always made my night after the games with their kind words and encouragement. They often drove home back to the East Peoria area from New Lenox after games. I always wanted them to stay, but they insisted on going home. Great people and Frank will be missed. Rest in peace my friend A life well lived

“ So many memories of my ornery Uncle "BB". First time i was in a car at over 100, of course it was Uncle Beeb at the wheel... Will miss his mischevious, but caring nature. God speed Uncle BB.
