“ Most of my memories of Inge are from the very early 70s during Rita's high school years. Rita and I tried to get away with lots of things but Inge was too smart for us. Mostly. She was tough and loving and got her kids through those difficult years. I remember going to visit her after Rita moved to Southern Il and Inge was always welcoming with a cup of coffee and words of wisdom. I wish you peace and a good journey Inge. Much love for the family.

“ I had the privilege of assisting Mrs. Beckemeyer in purchasing a Toyota Camry in 1997. I was entranced by her accent when I first met her, as it reminded me of my dearly departed Grandmother. The picture in her obituary reflects the way I always remember her, such a sweet smile. My sympathy to the family and friends. I'm sure there were many other people she touched, of whom you are not aware. Count me in the group of people whose heart is a little heavier this morning. God Bless you all.
