“ C'est avec beaucoup de tristesse que nous avons appris le décès de Jeanie. Même loin de vous, nous ressentons le désarroi qui est le vôtre de la voir partir si tôt. Jeanie était une femme pleine de talents, forte et d'une grande beauté. Son départ laisse certainement un grand vide. La famille de tante Georgine Cyr, des Îles-de-la-Madeleine, est solidaire à votre peine. Nous tenons à vous exprimer, Denis, Gabrielle et Beatrice, ainsi qu'à toute la famille, nos sincères condoléances. Nos pensées sont avec vous en ces temps de deuil.

“ Thinking back on all the time I was fortunate to spend with Jeanie it amazes me how she could make everyone in a room feel loved and seen. She knew no stranger, and welcomed all. She took her role as a mother so seriously that I don't think she realized how often she filled that role to not only her girls but so many around her. I always knew she was rooting for me and could always count on a hug and a smile whenever I saw her. I will miss her dearly, and am so thankful for the time I was fortunate enough to get to spend with her. Bella and Gabi, you may not see it but she left many of the qualities I wrote about with both of you. Please know that I and your 309 family are here for you always.

“ Dear Denis, Gabrielle, and Bella, Bob and I send our deepest sympathy and prayers to each of you. Jeanie was a vibrant personality who inspired many. She generously loved her family and friends and her community.

I recall a quick weekend trip to Atlanta to surprise my sister Julie Panos on her birthday. We drove through the night, arrived in time to spend the day with Julie, stayed up most of the following night chatting, and then drove home in time for work on Monday. Jeanie's enthusiasm and positive charm and sense of adventure and energy was a delight.

We are so sorry for your loss. May wonderful memories ease your sorrow.

Bob and Jo Ann Kinsella*
