“ Bud, Jennifer and Brian - My prayers are with you at this sad time. When Joanne and I were in our teens, we learned how to make a cheese sauce from scratch (for mac and cheese) together. That was 50 some years ago. I have always thought of that day whenever I make a cheese sauce. Last night when I made one, it brought back that day for me. When our dad's were in the hospital and passed at the same time, we reconnected again besides just Christmas. Joanne left her heart on everyone she met. She will be missed by many.

“Joanne, my paper doll friend of childhood, precious memories of her and her family. My heart is broken for Paul, her children and her precious grandchildren. I pray she's sharing a mayonnaise sandwich with Pearl and some oyster stew with Howard. I know she will spend her eternity being a guardian angel over her loved ones and I know she loved you all deeply. I'm so profoundly sorry for your loss. I'm sending you all strength and courage as you go through this valley in your lives. I too, feel your heart break.

“I'm so sorry about Joanne's passing. She is a very prominent part of my memories of the Woodrow Wilson neighborhood in the 80's. Bunco, Parent's Club, and lots of little boys--Joanne was a very important part of all of those things and always thoughtful of everyone. I know you will miss her, and my thoughts and prayers are with your family.
