“ My brothers and I met Kevin in the late 70s. He is a great friend to all of us and we loved hanging out together. He always livened up the party or event that we were at, like out at the cabin in Hanna City. He brought his young sons with him many times and we all enjoyed them also! The last I saw Kevin was at the East Peoria boat club at the polar bear plunge. He always had a big smile and a warm greeting and was a good storyteller. The Portscheller Brothers all heard the sad news today. And we all shared interesting stories about Kevin with each other. Thanks for the great times Kev!
