“ Marcella was a true friend. She was the very best accompanist I ever had. She was the faithful church organist and piano player whenever or wherever she was needed and her talent was no doubt taken for granted as well as all the sacrificial time she put into church services, Bible school activities, weddings, funerals and more! She never complained and always met you with a smile and humility. She was busy with home and reaching out to shut in or sick people with a casserole or pie and always a card of encouragement. I'm sure that when she entered God's eternity she was met by greetings from a host of so many that she blessed through the years. Thank you Marcella for all the times you encouraged me and prayed with me too! You have left behind a lasting legacy for all of us, and especially your family. I shall see you again, and who knows, you and I might just make music together again!
