“ I will never forget the weekend we went to the races at Talledaga. I took my motorhome and Rick was in a motorhome with Craig Bishel and some other guys. We followed each other down there and camped beside each other. Very little sleep but a whole lot of fun. Everyone I took with me still talks about it. Rick was definitely the fun of the party that whole weekend. Everyone will miss him and his humor. So Sorry for family and friends. Way too young. Rest in Peace Rick.

“ So sorry to hear about Rick, we grew up together in fact, in my younger days. It wasn't often that we weren't hanging together. Riding motorcycles Listening to Triumph albums and mixing "Bullfrawgs" or Tom Collins in a large containers usually a new garbage can. We had a ton of fun, times were different, no worries and ride Atc's in the woods all day, and sometimes all night!.. We had a blast..too many stories in the memory bank. I haven't seen Rick for many years, but I surely will miss him!..HE'S wickin' a throttle somewhere else now..Ill never forget. Peace be with you my friend! LOVE YA' MAN ALWAYS!!
