“ Even in Bert's last days on earth her sweet spirit and attitude were evident to all. She had a way of making everone feel special. She certainly impacted so many at Hollybrook. She appreciated the staff and they recognized her love and interest in them. Needless to say she so loved her kids, grandkids & great-grandkids. She would proudly share their pictures and speak lovingly of them. ... and her memories of her life with her John. :) Jeanne Gardner
